Accounts Receivable Policy

Here is the Accounts Receivable Policy for Camp Kooch-i-ching and Ogichi Daa Kwe:

Final tuition payment is due by May 15. If not paid by this date, a credit card will be required to process final payment. In the event that full tuition cannot be paid by the date due, families may contact the camp office in order to set up a payment plan. This plan will be signed by both parties after having come to an agreement on the payment amounts. No payment plan will extend past December 31st of the same year.

- 1.) Store and other miscellaneous charges will be sent out immediately following camp. All such charges must be paid in full by September 15. If not paid by this date, these charges will be placed on the designated credit card.
- 2.) All charges for camp-provided transportation will be paid up front at the time of reservation.
- 3.) Applications received after May 15 must be paid in full via credit card, check or electronic payment.

Please contact the office with any questions or concerns regarding the Credit Card Release form.
