Cyber Policy for Campers

Camp Kooch-i-ching and Ogichi Daa Kwe view social networking sites (e.g., MySpace, Facebook), personal websites, and blogs positively and respect the right of campers to use them as a medium of self-expression. If a camper chooses to identify himself or herself as a camper at our camp on such Internet venues, some readers of such websites or blogs may view the camper as a representative or spokesperson of the camp.

We expect and count on our campers to reflect Kooch/Ogichi core values year-round. For that reason, our camp requires, as a condition of participation, that campers observe the following guidelines when referring to the camp, its programs or activities, its campers, and/or employees, in a blog or on a website.

1. Campers will be respectful in all communications and blogs related to or referencing the camp, its employees, and other campers.
2. Campers will not use obscenities, profanity, or vulgar language.
3. Campers will not use blogs or personal websites to disparage the camp, other campers, or employees of the camp.
4. Campers will not use blogs or personal websites to harass, bully, or intimidate other campers or employees of the camp. Behaviors that constitute harassment and bullying include, but are not limited to, comments that are derogatory with respect to race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, color, or disability; sexually suggestive, humiliating, or demeaning comments; and threats to stalk, haze, or physically injure another person.
5. Campers will not use blogs or personal websites to discuss engaging in conduct that is unlawful or prohibited by camp policies, including, but not limited to, the use of alcohol and drugs, sexual behavior, sexual harassment, and bullying.

Any camper found to be in violation of this Cyber Policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including denial of admission to (or dismissal from) the camp.

I have read and understand the Cyber Policy for Campers. I agree to follow the policy for the well being of the camp, myself, and the camp community.
